(Sorry I didn't get down town monday

L. A. Calif.,
July 31, 1923.

Dear Alice + all the Rest:

The reason
I want you mentioned first is so you'll be sure + not forget to go over to Mrs. Honeyman's this week. She would like to have you play for S. S. next Sunday morning and wanted to consult you as to the song.
She took one of the C. C. books home with her from church + said she'd look them it. The organ or piano is to be moved up there for us.

Please don't forget it + also don't forget to study for,
and take the test on numbers
Thursday evening at 7:30.
Try to get as numbers to go as

2. she would surely be greatly discouraged if only a few came. I decided that it would be better for me to stay here as closely as possible & especially at nights so if my lady friendly left duncanites la mochi I would still be on hands to keep Jean. — I do. I'll not be there.

I gave Roy instructions to stop & get the C. E. world for next Sunday & give it to some girl, preferably, or a boy to lead. If no one can take it will you please take it as I think there will be the last meeting until September sometimes.

Did you pay Mr. Tuttle for me? If so - thanks much. If not hurry postals & do so, please. I left the bill & a P.S. $1.00 on the dresser & told mother to be sure you put the remainder from the bill ($1.25) back! (Also please).

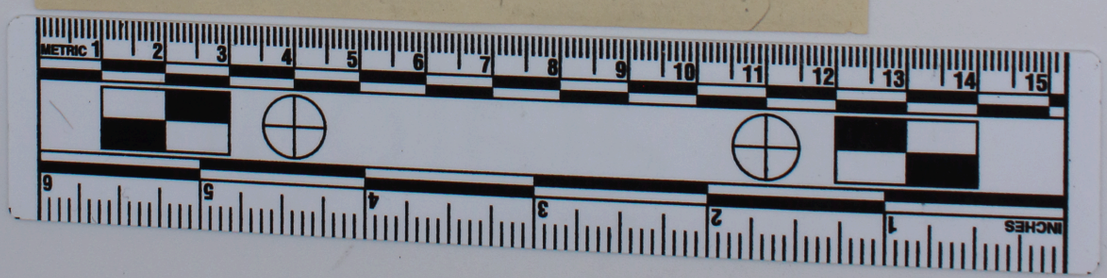
Have you had any sleep since I last saw you? If not you'd better have someone read this for you 'cause it would be dreadful to open "Sleepy" eyes to sight.

Say, there's a boy back & to the left of me in the next street west, who starts at approximately the same time every afternoon to play or rather toot his old coronet & keeps it up until he about drives me crazy (I guess it's a boy). Mrs. Watkinson starts to howl at it like a dog does at a train & we have piece, perfect piece,



Y. of minds arts.

Is your towel finished yet? I done finished nearly all of mine excepting those five flowers by themselves & the French knots. I can't decide whether to make those the same color as the other flowers or not. I think I'll make the knots of yellow or apricot.

Mrs. N. went to Opera Evenings big banquet for ex-service men last night & Mrs. N. was still talking when she came home after 11 o'clock.

Well, I'll quit & take my swim & let Mrs. N. mail this for me. Love & kisses to you all - Nellie.

Please write (if you're able) & tell me all the news. Have a good time in
